

Nebraska Association for the Gifted Presents

Would your gifted child like to learn more about themselves and have an opportunity to meet with other students just like them? If so, the Nebraska Association for the Gifted is offering a first-time experience for students and parents!

Who? Gifted & Talented Students in 5th through 8th Grade

When? January 27th 9AM-2PM @ ESU 3 6949 South 110th Street LaVista, NE 68128

Students attend from 9AM-2PM. Parents are welcome to attend from 1-2PM to learn more about advocacy for their gifted students. Lunch is brown bag - bring your own!

Cost? $10.00 per student (Fee also includes a morning snack)

Transportation? Schools are encouraged to bring a bus or pass this information along to parents. Transportation is not provided and is up to the school or individual.

Registration deadline 1/10/20.

4 Breakout sessions:

- Perfectionism, Stress & Anxiety Learn about the "perfection infection" and become more self-aware of your own stressors and anxieties about trying to be the perfect student.
- Battle the Boredom! Do you ever get bored in class? Do you procrastinate on big assignments? Come to this session to learn skills of engagement to fend off the Boredom Blues! (It will be anything but boring!!)
- What Does It Mean To Be Gifted? What does it mean to be identified gifted and talented or high ability? Explore strategies to navigate the myths and realities and make the most of your strengths!
- Growth Mindset for the Gifted Kid Use your gifts and talents to their furthest potential by understanding what it takes to learn better.

Questions? Email - negifted@gmail.com

Brian Housand, PhD

Kevin Honeycutt

Nebraska Association for the Gifted
February 20-21, 2020
Downtown Embassy Suites - Omaha

For more information on our keynote speakers please visit:
<https://www.brianhousand.com>
<https://www.best-keynote.com/kevin-honeycutt.html>

We are excited to present Dr. Brian Housand to our conference with his latest and greatest tools to challenge and motivate gifted kids using technology! Kevin Honeycutt is a creative master who will inspire you to get your student's creative juices flowing! This will be a unique conference experience with many ideas to use on Monday! Get registered today!