This workshop is designed to provide skills needed to help dyslexic students and/or those who experience reading, writing, and spelling difficulties. You will learn research-based techniques for teaching students to read based on the Orton-Gillingham multisensory methodology. The course demonstrates how to build phonological awareness, phonetic decoding and encoding skills, fluency, vocabulary and comprehension in reading.

Instructor: Sandra Stark, M. Ed. has a Master's Degree from Doane University with 36 years of elementary teaching experience. As a Title 1 teacher she incorporated a multi-sensory, Orton-Gillingham Structured Literacy approach to teaching reading. She is trained and has taught Orton-Gillingham Basic Language, A-Z Phonics/Project Read, VoWac and Comprehensive Multisensory Reading Instruction. Sandy is a member the Nebraska Dyslexia Association and serves on the Board of Directors.
