

Homeschool Teen Serve – 2020-21

Homeschool Teen Serve (HTS) is an organization for teens who join together monthly to serve local communities in response to Jesus' challenge, "...he that is greatest among you shall be your servant." (Matthew 23:11) If you're interested in registering your teen in one of the five area chapters of HTS during the 2020-21 school year, then you still have the opportunity to attend an informational parent meeting this summer.

In order to participate in HTS, at least one parent from each participating family must attend one of the listed below. At the meeting, you will receive a 2020-21 handbook and registration forms, as well have the opportunity to ask any questions you might have about HTS. For information on times and locations for the meetings listed below, contact the director at the chapter's email address.
